

No Uber! Log-OFF, Monday, 4/9/2017

We call on all members and any other Uber driver in Australia to join us on this day and SWITCH OFF your Uber app from 6:30am until 5pm in protest over our poor pay and working conditions, safety concerns and Uber failure to fully comply with our demands.

For well over a year now, Uber continues to ignore their “driver partners” and insist on keeping base rates at loss making unsustainable levels, all at drivers’ expense. We, therefore, call on all Uber drivers in Australia to unite on this day and join us by Logging-OFF your driver app and staying OFFLINE from 6:30am until 5pm. Let’s all send Uber (yet again) a message they should not ignore.

RSDU has recently filed a complaint with Fair Work Ombudsman asking for an investigation to be launched into Uber’s working relations with its drivers. This investigation is ongoing and we thank the dozens of drivers who have come forward and are actively taking part. We await with interest Fair Work Australia investigation results and will update all members as soon as we know more.

We strongly feel that Uber insistence on building a business based on exploiting drivers is bad for Uber, bad for drivers, bad for the ridesharing industry in general and ultimately bad for this country as it will slowly create more and more poverty. The model Uber are adopting is akin to “predatory pricing” ensuring no viable competitors can survive while Uber drivers are set (by Uber) to carry the entire burden with no say on the matter. This is in sharp contrast to Uber’s claims of drivers being sub-contracted “partners”.

RSDU believe it is in drivers’ best interest, even duty, to collectively work together towards changing this situation, demanding fair working conditions and pay. These are the basics when it comes to ensuring a healthy, sustainable ride sharing industry in this country and are non-negotiable. The exploitation of cheap labor must immediately be looked at closely and fixed.

Drivers, remember: It’s Your car! Your time! Your investment! Your Rules!

Uber driver, Log-OFF Monday 4/9/2017 from 6:30AM until 5:00PM is your chance to stand firm for your rights and have your say together with thousands of other drivers Australia wide.

Join us and Log-OFF your driver app on Monday. Let’s all stand together, speak with one voice and let Uber management and our Government departments hear our message loud and clear, enough is enough!

Thank you for your support. Stay united! Only together can we make a difference!
